1 TO THE HONORABLE DENNIS MONTALI, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
2 JUDGE, THE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE, AND ALL INTERESTED
3 PARTIES:

4 The Singleton Law Firm (“SLF”) and Marshack Hays LLP, together with several other firms,
5 represent thousands of victims (“SLF Claimants”) of the fires started by PG&E in 2015 (“Butte
6 Fire”), 2017 (the twenty fires generally referred to as the “North Bay” and “Wind Complex Fires”),
7 2018 (“Camp Fire”) and 2019 (“Kincade Fire” and “LaFayette Fire”).

8 SLF respectfully file this motion on behalf of Alma Eugenio Fuentes, Tito Fuentes, Jr., and 9 Tito Fuentes, III (collectively “Movants”) to deem timely a late filed proof of claim (“Motion”).

10 I. Summary of Argument

11 A proof of claim may be deemed timely upon a showing of excusable neglect and lack of 12 prejudice. In this case, due to miscommunications with prior counsel, Movants were unable to timely
13 file their proofs of claim for damages arising from the Tubbs Fire. Because there is no danger of 14 prejudice to the Debtors as Debtors’ estates are solvent, and all creditors stand to be paid, the Motion
15 should be granted to allow these survivors to have their claims deemed timely. This Court must 16 determine whether to grant the Motion.

17 II. Factual Background

18 A. Movant’s Claims Arising From Tubbs Fire¹

19 Creditors Alma Eugenio Fuentes (“Alma”), Tito Fuentes, Jr. (“Tito Jr.”), and Tito Fuentes, III
20 (“Tito III”) are all survivors of the 2017 Tubbs Fire.

21 In November of 2017, Alma and Tito Jr. contacted Ahmed Diab of Diab, Dixon and Chambers
22 regarding potential claims of Alma’s mother, Gemma Deocamp Eugenio (“Mother”), and other family
23 members², related to the total loss of real property located at 5950 Haire Lane Napa, CA 94559
24 (“Property”) as a result of the Tubbs Fire. The Property was held in the name of a trust called The 25

27 ¹ See, Declaration of Gary LoCurto, ¶¶6-15.

28 ² The family members were Michelle Doromal Deocampo, Alymar Reuben Eugenio, Annelise Margaret Eugenio, Ariel Joseph Eugenio, and Christina Eugenio (“Family Members”).

1 Gemma Eugenio Revocable Trust 2018 (“Trust”). The Property served as both a personal residence
2 and a residential care facility called Celebrity Haven 1 (“Business”).

3 Mr. Diab was under the impression that Alma, did not have any claims related to the Tubbs
4 fire, as (i) Alma never mentioned, Tito Jr., and Tito III lived at the Property; (ii) Alma never 5 mentioned she worked at the Business.

6 Thus, proofs of claim where timely filed³ on behalf of Mother, Trust, Business and all of the 7 Family Members, but not Movants.

8 On Monday July 13, 2020 SLF contacted one of the Family Members, Alymar Eugenio, to 9 address outstanding inquiries related to the Trust and Business.

10 On Tuesday, July 14, 2020 SLF received a voicemail from Alymar’s sister, Alma, indicating 11 she was the contact person for the Trust, Business and Family Members. Further, Alma emailed SLF
12 with a list of all parties, including Movants for whom SLF never received executed retainers.

13 On Wednesday, July 15, 2020 SLF contacted Alma, explaining how there was no record of 14 Movants in SLF’s files. Further SLF, asked Alma if she had copies of the executed retainers which she 15 said she did not have.

16 On Thursday, July 16, 2020 SLF inquired whether Alma had any email receipts, and/or other
17 case-related paperwork addressed to her, Tito Jr., and Tito III. Alma then forwarded her two email
18 chains between Alma, and attorney Mr. Diab from November 2017.

19 Ultimately, SLF contacted Alma on July 17, 2020, and learned all three individuals resided at 20 the Property and that Alma was the director of the Business.

21 Due to miscommunications between Diab Dixon and Chambers and Movants, SLF did not 22 receive information related to Movants in order to to timely complete Movants’ proof of claim. As 23 such, no proofs of claim were timely filed on behalf of Movants.

24 On July 24, 2020, SLF filed claim number TKIDQ27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]],
25 RZACC27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]], and NOPM#27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]] on behalf of Alma, Tito Jr.,
26 and Tito III (“Subject Proofs of Claim”). True and correct copies of the Subject Proofs of Claim are 27

28 ³ All claims were filed on Octobr 18, 2019.

1 collectively attached to the LoCurto Declaration as Exhibit “1.”

2 Thus, SLF now brings Motion to have the Subject Proofs of Claim deemed timely.

3 B. Pertinent Bankruptcy Background

4 On January 29, 2019, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company (“Debtors” or 5 “PG&E”) commenced with the Court voluntary cases (“Chapter 11 Cases”) under chapter 11 of the 6 United States Code (“Bankruptcy Code”). PG&E’s chapter 11 filings were necessitated by a
7 confluence of factors resulting from catastrophic fires that occurred in Northern California prior to the 8 Petition Date, and PG&E’s potential liabilities arising therefrom.

9 The deadline for filing proofs of claim with respect to any prepetition claim including, but not 10 limited to, all claims of Fire Claimants, Wildfire Subrogation Claimants, Governmental Units and 11 Customers, and for the avoidance of doubt, including all secured claims and priority claims, against 12 either of the Debtors was October 21, 2019 at 5:00 p.m. (“General Bar Date”).

13 The deadline for filing claims was extended to December 31, 2019 (“Extended Bar Date”),
14 solely for the benefit of any non-governmental Fire Claimants who did not filed Proofs of Claim by 15 the General Bar Date. See, Dk. No. 4672.

16 On January 31, 2020, as Dk. No. 5590, the Debtors filed an Amended Chapter 11 Plan Debtors’
17 and Shareholder Proponents’ Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization Dated January 31, 2020

18 On February 7, 2020, as Dk. No. 5700, the Debtors filed a Disclosure Statement for the 19 Amended Plan.

20 On February 19, 2020, as Dk. No. 5835, the Debtors filed Motion for Entry of an Order (I)
21 Approving Form and Manner of Notice of Hearing on Proposed Disclosure Statement; (II)
22 Establishing and Approving Plan Solicitation and Voting Procedures; (III) Approving Forms of 23 Ballots, Solicitation Packages, and Related Notices; and (IV) Granting Related Relief (the 24 “Solicitation Procedures Motion”). On March 17, 2020, the Solicitations Procedures Motion was 25 approved.

26 After filing multiple iterations of the plan, on June 19, 2020, as Dk. No 8048, the Debtors filed
27 an Amended Joint Chapter 1 Plan of Reorganization dated June 19, 2020 (“Final Plan”).

28 On June 20, 2020, post-voting and hotly contested confirmation hearings, the bankruptcy

1 court entered an order confirming the Final Plan. See, Dk. No. 8053.

2 III. Legal Argument

3 In a Chapter 11 case, the time to file a proof of claim may be extended under certain
4 circumstances. Fed. R. Bank. Pro. 3003(c)(3); Fed. R. Bank. Pro. 9006(b)(1). The bankruptcy court
5 has “broad equitable powers” in a Chapter 11 case with respect to the timing requirement for proofs of 6 claim. Pioneer Inventory Services v. Brunswick Associates Limited Partnership, 507 U.S. 380, 389
7 (1993). All in all, Rule 9006(b)(1) allows “late filings caused by inadvertence, mistake, or 8 carelessness, not just those caused by intervening circumstances beyond the party's control.” Id., at 9 381. Even a creditor that did in fact receive notice may file a proof of claim notwithstanding the 10 expiration of a claims bar date in a Chapter 11 case upon a showing of “excusable neglect.” Id. at 394-
11 95 (“Had respondents here been prevented from complying with the bar date by an act of God or some 12 other circumstance beyond their control, the Bankruptcy Court plainly would have been permitted to 13 find ‘excusable neglect’ [under FRBP 9006].”).

14 In considering whether a creditor’s failure was the product of “excusable neglect,” the court 15 should take “account of all relevant circumstances surrounding the party’s omission,” including “the 16 danger of prejudice to the debtor, the length of the delay and its potential impact on judicial 17 proceedings, the reason for the delay, including whether it was within the reasonable control of the 18 movant, and whether the movant acted in good faith.” Id. at 395; see also Corning v. Corning (In re
19 Zilog, Inc.), 450 F.3d 996 (9th Cir. 2006) (noting Pioneer’s non-exhaustive list of relevant factors).
20 Again, a late-filed proof of claim is allowable where a creditor had actual notice of the bankruptcy
21 but, due to some external reason, failed to file a proof of claim or did not realize that she had to,
22 before the bar date. See, e.g., ZiLOG, Inc. v. Corning (In re ZiLOG, Inc.), 450 F.3d 996, 1003-07 (9th 23 Cir. 2006) (applying the Pioneer factors). All in all, Rule 9006(b)(1) allows “late filings caused by 24 inadvertence, mistake, or carelessness, not just those caused by intervening circumstances beyond the 25 party's control.” Pioneer, 507 U.S. at 381. Here, consideration of all four Pioneer factors—as well as 26 a fifth engrafted onto the Pioneer analysis by some courts—weighs in favor of Movants.

27 Because in this case there is no danger of prejudice to the Debtors, the first Pioneer factor
28 weighs overwhelmingly in Movant’s favor. Debtors’ estates are solvent, and all creditors stand to be

1 paid. See, e.g., In re Best Payphones, Inc., 523 B.R. 54, 75-6 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2015) and In re
2 Sheehan Mem'l Hosp., 507 B.R. 802, 803 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y. 2014) (where the chapter 11 estate is
3 solvent, “the proper remedy for a late filing is not the expungement of a claim, but its allowance as a
4 tardily filed claim only.). Secondly, immediately, upon receiving all the necessary information the 5 Subject Proofs of Claim was filed. Thirdly, the delay in filing the Subject Proofs of Claim is 6 reasonable considering immediately upon becoming aware that he may be compensated for damages
7 suffered, a proof of claim was filed by SLF on behalf of Movants’. Lastly, any prospect of prejudice
8 beyond solvency is unlikely given (a) distributions have not been made; and (b) the value of Movants’
9 claims relative to the value of Debtors’ estates is low. See, e.g., In re Keene Corp., 188 B.R. 903, 910
10 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1995) (size of the late claim in relation to the estate is a consideration in determining 11 prejudice).

1 IV. Conclusion

2 For the reasons set forth above, the Movant respectfully request that this Court enter an order
3 pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9006(b)(1) as follows:

- 4 1. Granting the Motion;
- 5 2. Finding that Subject Proofs of Claim filed by Movants are to be allowed as having 6 been timely filed;
- 7 3. Granting such other or further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Declaration of Gary LoCurto

I, GARY LOCURTO, say and declare as follows:

1. I am an individual over 18 years of age and competent to make this Declaration.

2. If called upon to do so, I could and would competently testify as to the facts set forth in this Declaration.

3. The facts set forth below are true of my personal knowledge except for information related to Mr. Diab's communications with Movants' which I learned second-hand through review of documents and communications with Mr. Diab and Alma Eugenio Fuentes.

4. I am an attorney at Singleton Law Firm and I make this declaration in support the Motion to Allow/Deem Timely Late Filing of Proof of Claim ("Motion").

5. Creditors Alma Eugenio Fuentes ("Alma"), Tito Fuentes, Jr. ("Tito Jr."), and Tito Fuentes, III ("Tito III") are all survivors of the 2017 Tubbs Fire.

6. I am informed that, in November of 2017, Alma and Tito Jr. contacted Ahmed Diab of Diab, Dixon and Chambers regarding potential claims of Alma's mother, Gemma Deocamp Eugenio ("Mother"), and other family members⁴, related to the total loss of real property located at 5950 Haire Lane Napa, CA 94559 ("Property") as a result of the Tubbs Fire. The Property was held in the name of a trust called The Gemma Eugenio Revocable Trust 2018 ("Trust"). The Property served as both a personal residence and a residential care facility called Celebrity Haven 1 ("Business").

7. I am informed⁵ that Mr. Diab was under the impression that Alma, did not have any claims related to the Tubbs fire, as (i) Alma never mentioned, Tito Jr., and Tito III lived at the Property; (ii) Alma never mentioned she worked at the Business.

8. Thus, proofs of claim where timely filed⁶ on behalf of Mother, Trust, Business and all

⁴ The family members were Michelle Doromal Deocampo, Alymar Reuben Eugenio, Annelise Margaret Eugenio, Ariel Joseph Eugenio, and Christina Eugenio ("Family Members").

⁵ Per my communications and correspondences with Mr. Diab:

(i) he was under the impression that Alma Fuentes, who was his only contact with the family, did not have any claims related to the fire;

(ii) it was his custom and practice to fully explore all avenues of recovery for all potential claims and plaintiffs;

(iii), at no point did any damages for Alma or her husband Tito Fuentes Jr., and son, Tito R Fuentes III become apparent; (iv) Alma never mentioned at any point she and her son and husband lived at the affected property, or that Alma worked at Celebrity Haven 1.

⁶ All claims were filed on Octobr 18, 2019.

1 of the Family Members, but not Movants.

2 9. On Monday July 13, 2020 my firm contacted one of the Family Members, Alymar
3 Eugenio, to address outstanding inquiries related to the Trust and Business.

4 10. On Tuesday, July 14, 2020 my firm received a voicemail from Alymar's sister, Alma,
5 indicating she was the contact person for the Trust, Business and Family Members. Further, Alma
6 emailed my firm with a list of all parties, including Movants for whom SLF never received executed
7 retainers.

8 11. On Wednesday, July 15, 2020 my firm contacted Alma, explaining how there was no
9 record of Movants in SLF's files. Further my firm, asked Alma if she had copies of the executed 10 retainers which she said she did not have.

11 12. On Thursday, July 16, 2020 SLF inquired whether Alma had any email receipts, and/or 12 other case-related paperwork addressed to her, Tito Jr., and Tito III. Alma then forwarded her two 13 email chains between Alma, and attorney Mr. Diab from November 2017.

14 13. Ultimately, I contacted Alma on July 17, 2020, and learned all three individuals resided 15 at the Property and that Alma was the director of the Business.

16 14. Due to miscommunications between Diab Dixon and Chambers and Movants, SLF did
17 not receive information related to Movants in order to to timely complete Movants' proofs of claim.
18 As such, no proofs of claim were timely filed on behalf of Movants.

19 15. On July 24, 2020, SLF filed claim number TKIDQ27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]],
20 RZACC27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]], and NOPM#27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]] on behalf of Alma, Tito Jr.,
21 and Tito III ("Subject Proofs of Claim"). True and correct copies of the Subject Proofs of Claim are
22 collectively attached as Exhibit "1."

23 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on July 30,

The responsibility for redacting personal data identifiers (as defined in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9037) rests solely with the party submitting the documentation and their counsel. Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court will not review any document for redaction or compliance with this Rule and you hereby release and agree to hold harmless Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court from the disclosure of any personal data identifiers included in your submission. In the event Prime Clerk or the Clerk of the Court discover that personal identifier data or information concerning a minor individual has been included in a pleading, Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court are authorized, in their sole discretion, to redact all such information from the text of the filing and make an entry indicating the correction.

Instructions for Proof of Claim (Fire Claim Related)

United States Bankruptcy Court

You may have a claim against the Debtors for monetary loss, personal injury (including death), or other asserted damages arising out of or related to a fire. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the chapter 11 process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both.
18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date this claim form is filed.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child's initials and the full name of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- You may but are not required to attach supporting documents to this form.
Supporting documents will be gathered, maintained, and provided at a later date as instructed by the Court. If you do attach documents, you should attach redacted documents as supporting documentation will be made publicly available and will not be kept confidential. See the definition of redaction of information below.
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- Question 3. Members of a family may but are not required to file a proof of claim as a family but may, if they choose, submit individual claim forms for each family member that has a claim against the debtors.

- Question 9. If you suffered property damage, then provide the street address of each real property parcel where you suffered property damage. If you were personally evacuated as the result of a fire, then provide the address or intersection closest to where you encountered the fire and began evacuation. If you suffered property damage and were evacuated from a different location, include both. If you were a renter, provide the address of your residence.
- Question 10. This question requests general statements of underlying facts relating to harm and is not intended to be exhaustive or preclusive.
- Question 11. You are not required to include a claim amount with your proof of claim. Providing a claim amount at this time is optional.

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form together with the original. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. In this instance, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the creditor has a claim against the debtors on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing (in these cases, January 29, 2019). The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

Instructions for Proof of Claim (Fire Claim Related)

United States Bankruptcy Court

You may have a claim against the Debtors for monetary loss, personal injury (including death), or other asserted damages arising out of or related to a fire. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the chapter 11 process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both.
18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date this claim form is filed.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child's initials and the full name of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- You may but are not required to attach supporting documents to this form.
Supporting documents will be gathered, maintained, and provided at a later date as instructed by the Court. If you do attach documents, you should attach redacted documents as supporting documentation will be made publicly available and will not be kept confidential. See the definition of redaction of information below.
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- Question 3. Members of a family may but are not required to file a proof of claim as a family but may, if they choose, submit individual claim forms for each family member that has a claim against the debtors.

- Question 9. If you suffered property damage, then provide the street address of each real property parcel where you suffered property damage. If you were personally evacuated as the result of a fire, then provide the address or intersection closest to where you encountered the fire and began evacuation. If you suffered property damage and were evacuated from a different location, include both. If you were a renter, provide the address of your residence.
- Question 10. This question requests general statements of underlying facts relating to harm and is not intended to be exhaustive or preclusive.
- Question 11. You are not required to include a claim amount with your proof of claim. Providing a claim amount at this time is optional.

If you do attach documents, you should attach redacted documents as supporting documentation will be made publicly available and will not be kept confidential. See the definition of redaction of information below.
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- Question 3. Members of a family may but are not required to file a proof of claim as a family but may, if they choose, submit individual claim forms for each family member that has a claim against the debtors.

- Question 9. If you suffered property damage, then provide the street address of each real property parcel where you suffered property damage. If you were personally evacuated as the result of a fire, then provide the address or intersection closest to where you encountered the fire and began evacuation. If you suffered property damage and were evacuated from a different location, include both. If you were a renter, provide the address of your residence.
- Question 10. This question requests general statements of underlying facts relating to harm and is not intended to be exhaustive or preclusive.
- Question 11. You are not required to include a claim amount with your proof of claim. Providing a claim amount at this time is optional.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form together with the original. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. In this instance, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the creditor has a claim against the debtors on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing (in these cases, January 29, 2019). The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.
